

Poems from the Road Podcast

Playlist

This playlist provides details of all poetry tracks included in the Home Cooking: Poems from the Road podcast. It includes the title, author, and any credits I am aware of (previous publications and assistance with reading and recording). Unless otherwise stated under Credits, as far as I am aware all poems are read and recorded by their authors.

The podcast was commissioned by Apples and Snakes, produced by Robin Vaughan-Williams, and is broadcast on Hive Radio every Thursday in December 2014 5–6pm. Thereafter it will be archived on Apples and Snakes SoundCloud.

Additional materials that were selected for the show but not included in the final edit for reasons of time are available on Robin Vaughan-Williams' SoundCloud page for three months from 1 December 2014.
